(By Associated Press.)
NETY YORK, Nov. 25.—A number of industrial stocks suffered wide breaches in their valuations again to-day in continuation of the process which was so conspicuous in yesterday's dealings Some of the weaker stocks then were acutely affected to-day, while new ones were brought into the movement. There was little in the way of specific news to account for the decline, and those concerning which there was news were not the most acutely affected.

ing which there was news were not the most acutely affected.

News of shutting down of mills to work off supplies hirt International Paper. Fluctuations in Colorado Fiel seemed to represent varying views of the provision made for capital needs by a sale of coal and iron lands of the company. The only news accompanying the break of over 2 points in rallway Steel Spring preferred was the application to the stock exchange to list additional stock, which contained no surprise for those conversant with the company's affairs. It may be taken for granted that a well organized party skill-tuily directed the affack on these securities. The quick rebound in their prices was sufficient evidence of this in liself. But there is no reason to doubt the current reports of a general sweeping out of collateral in loans of industrial securities, capecially of the newer undigested class. There is apparent also an intention to adjust the basis of prices of the whole body of industrials to that of the stocks which have aiready been severely scaled down. A relative firmness, griwing into strength, of the United States Steel stocks and of Amalgamated Copper were consonant with this view. The late recovery in the market wiped out all the principal losses and established some fair gains in the industrials.

The bond market became very dull and was irregular. Total sales, par value, were $2,20,000.

United States refunding 2's and the old and new 4's declined 1-4 and the 3's 1-2 per cent on the last call.

Total sales of stocks to-day were 374,200 shares.

ST. MARY'S BAZAAR.

Another Large Crowd in Attendance Last Night.

tendance Last Night.

A very large crowd was in attendance at St. Mary's Hall last night, and the indies were again made glad by the excellent spirit of liberality displayed.

In order to have the school children attend the bazaar again, a special programme has been arranged for their entertainment this afternoo, and tomorow, beginning at 3 o'clock. It is needless to say that the little folks, accompanied by their parents, will turn out in large numbers, and a rare treat is in store for every child who attends.

The pratty tobacco jar offered as the door prize was won by Mr. Freu L. August, he being the holder of the lucky coupon.

coupon.

Rev. Father William was the recipient of a handsome oak rocking chair. The presentation was made by the chairman, Mr. A. B. Wiesmann, Rev. Father William responding with an interesting talk. The ladies of St. Ann's Society have been untiring in their efforts, making arangements for the grand dinner to be served to-day.

served to-day.

It is safe to predict that they will be busy from noon until late in the evening. The close of this very successful bazaar will be held with an expert auctioneer. Saturday night.

WEDDED AT W. C. A.

While Ceremony Went on Some One Stole Door Mat.

An exceedingly pretty marriage was elemnized in the pariors of the Woman's Christian Association building last night, Miss Etisca Dexter becoming the bride of Mr. John T. Lying.

both young people are natives of Fluvanna and have been sweetinearts all their lives. Sometime ago the bride came to Richmond to live, and has been much admired by Richmond gallant young men. But Mr. Irving was not to be beaten by anyone.

But Mr. Irving was not to be seemed.

Any one.

Mr. Reginald Walker presided at the organ last night. The only unhappy incident in connection with the marriage was that while all were intent upon the ce-emony some scamp came along and stole the door mat of the association building.

stole the door mit of the association unliding.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Hasilif, of Loudoun county, a relative of the bride. The attendants were Mrs. W. R. Sayer, of North Carolina, sister of the bride, who was matron of honor; Missilving, maid of honor, and Messrs. Dexter and Hughes, ushers.

The couple left isst night for Fluvannar county, where to-day they will be the guests of henor at an old-fashloned Thanksgiving Day dinner at the residence of the groom's parents.

The young lady is a pretty brunette, while the groom, who is employed by the C. & O. Hallway Co., is a fine fellow, liked by all who know him. They will reside at Clifton Forge.

PEANUT CASE IS ARGUED AND SUBMITTED

The case of Gwaitney-Bunkley Peanut Co. vs. the Southern Rallway Co., involving freight rates over the line of the delendant company, between Bufolk and Nortolk, was neard by the Corpo atlon Commission yesterday, a large number of witnesses having been examined for both sides. Mr. J. M. Cu.p. general fielght agent of the road, was on the stand for some time.

The case was argued by Hon. A. C. Hiskton, and ex-Senator R. E. Boykin appeared for the plaintiffs, and Hon. Alf. P. Thom for the desendant company. The argument was completed about 7:30 clock, and the commission took the case under advisement, and will announce its decision later on.

Preached Fine Sermon.

A large congregation attended the revival services at the Calvary Baptist Church last night, and Rev. Mr. Coleman, who is aiding Dr. Bruner, preached a very able sermon. One person made profession of religion and a number saked for prayer.

A Thanksqiving prayer meeting will be held this morning from seven to eight Colock. sleep.

All Welcome the Coming of the Annual Day for the Giving of Thanks.

MANY JOYS IN PROSPECT

Entertainments, Dinners, Hunting Parties, Foot-Ball, Theatres and Other Diversions.

To men of all creeds and all stations in life the dawning of to-day brings. If not a scason of thanks, at least a brief period of rest and recreation that falls pleasantly in the midst of the weekly toll.

An air crisp with the chill of midwinter, a sky dull and leaden with a lingering promise of showers of rain or perhaps flurrics of showers of rain or perhaps flurrics of showers of rain or perhaps flurrics of showers of the eigns read by the weather prophet. They are not altogether bright or cheery, but there is always the clinging hope of a change for the best at the eleventh hour. Besides this, the weather will not count for a great deal unless it visits extrames upon the land. If the atmospheric disturbance stops at anything short of a decided downpour or a downight snow-storm the holiday-clad people will go forth undisnuayed and in some manner or other carry out their celebration of the good old Thanksgiving time.

Services of Thanks.

Thanksgiving time.

Services of Thanks.

Early in the morning the church bells will call the denominations together for services of thanks, to the Almighty for his favors and blessings of the past twelve months. Always a distinct feature of Thanksgiving in Richmond, there will be no exception this year. All congregations will be united for this once and the services of song and praise will ascend from all alike. In addition to the usual church gatherings there will be a number of minor religious functions in the way of suppers, teas, entertainments and so on for some benevolent purpose. At one or two churches, notably St. Andrew's, special church services have been arranged for the evening.

All the Catholic and Episcopal churches will hold services during the morning. Bermons will be preached upon themes appropriate to the day.

The Baptists will unite at the Second Baptist Church, or at least a number of the congregations will gather there. The services will begin at Il A. M. The Rev. Weston Bruner, D. D., of Calvary, will preach. At the same hour a special service of like character will be 'eld at Pine-Street, where the pulpit will be filed by the Rev. C. C. Coleman, of Washington.

A union service of the Methodists will be held at 11 A. M. At Contenary. The

by the Rev. C. C. Coleman, of Washington.

A union service of the Methodists will be held at 11 A. M. at Centenary. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. J. T. Whitley, presiding elder of the Rappahannock District.

The Presbyterian service will be held in the First Church. The Rev. Dr. R. B. Eggleston, of the Third Church, will preach the sermon.

Thanksgiving services will be held at 11 o'clock at Beth Ahaba Synagogue. An address appropriate to the occasion will be delivered by Dr. Calisch. All will be welcome.

The Social Feature,

The Social Feature.

welcome.

The Social Feature.

The social feature of Thanksgiving will be as usual a marked one. Around the great foot-ball game the social whirl will revolve. Frankin and Grace Streets will be decorated to some extent, mostly in flowers, and Broad and Main Streets will be gay with a beribboned crowd of laughing, chattering people. The annual Thanksgiving parade of people will be a thing worth seeing.

Dinners, suppers, teas, Thanksgiving parties galore are on the tablets, Many parties galore are on the tablets, Many lally-ho and drag parties are also in contemplation. The younger society set will be out in force. Pretty girls, with their escorts, all bearing somewhere upon them the becoming colors of the old North State, will ride behind horses gayly decorated, and go forth to see the mighty struggle on the gridiron. As usual the holiday will be made the opportunity for a number of delayed hunting trips. Gun on shoulder, many a Richmond man will tramp the woods of some near-by county in search of game, large or small.

The clubs of the city will as usual keep open house. Each has arranged some little thing that will serve to specialize the occasion.

The Thanksgiving Dinner. The prospects for the Thanksgiving dinner were never brighter. A month ago the indispensable gobbler was a scarcity, and croaking prophets predicted that there would be none here at all. But during the past few dars large lots have been coming in from the country, and the mrakets are well stocked. The prices are high-even twenty cents a pound are high-even twenty cents a pound-but the real thing is there to be had for but the real thing is there to be had for the money.

There is also no lack of other things. The markets are rich in their stores of the good things of the earth and respiendent with the Thanksgiving decorations of the hucksters. The old black mammy sits Sphinx-like against the Sixth Street wall and piles her trade. Huge baskets of flowers are in front of her and around her, holding more this year than ever before. It was all gathered with her hand—chrysanthemums, holly, running cedar and pine and many other things.
